ARTICLE IV.
(Membership)

Section 1. Membership in this association shall consist of charter members named in Article III and additional members who qualify for membership. Method of qualification hereinafter prescribed.

Section 2. A member in the association is in good standings when he is an active umpire, pays his dues on or before April 15th of each year, and makes every effort to attend the annual meeting of the association.

Section 3. Membership in the association is open to residents of South Dakota and to residents of bordering states who wish to umpire in South Dakota.

Section 4. Membership in this association shall be obtained by the following procedures:

When an annual fee has been received by the secretary of the association, the following procedure shall be followed:

- a. The District Umpire and/or any officer of the South Dakota Baseball Umpires Association shall administer a written test on the rules of baseball, the duties of an umpire and the responsibilities of an umpire. If an umpire misses a year's dues the umpire must retake the umpire's exam. The written test shall be a standardized test prepared by the officers of this association.
- b. Uniform:
 1. The umpire will have a one-year grace period from the time of his acceptance to purchase the following proper attire as prescribed by this association:
 - (i) Shirt with patch.
 - (ii) Pants
 - (iii) Plate and Base Cap
 - (iv) Black, navy blue, or blue socks.
 - (v) Black base shoes.
 2. If after the expiration of the grace period, the umpire has not purchased and/or not wearing the proper attire as in Section 4 b.1., he shall not be considered an active member of this association.
 3. Once the suspended member for the reasons of Section 4 b.1, complies with the approval of their District Umpire and/or any officer of this association, umpires shall be reinstated with full membership.
- c. When an umpire has met requirements for membership. They shall be qualified as a member of the association by paying annual dues. If accepted the umpire shall remain fully qualified as a member of the association by paying their annual dues by April 15th, late fees will be added to members that pay after the dead line. When dues are paid, the member is entitled to all rights, privileges, responsibilities and any other prerogative of the association.
- d. An umpire will forfeit his membership in this association by non-payment of dues. In case of unforeseen unusual or mitigating circumstances, he may appeal to the officers of this association for reinstatement.

Section 5. There shall be two categories of umpires.

- a. Registered umpires are umpires who meet the requirements set out in Section 2 above.
- b. Certified umpires are Registered Umpires who have attended the annual District Umpire clinic for the current year.

ARTICLE V.
(Dues)

Section 1. Annual membership dues shall be the sum set by this association payable annually on or before April 15th of each year.

ARTICLE VI.
(Meeting)

Section 1. The annual meeting of this association shall be held during the winter months, namely, January, February, or March, of each year at a time and place to be designated by the president.

- a. The officers of this association shall hold at least one meeting each year.
- b. The president of this association shall have authority to call a meeting of the officers of this association whenever he/she deems necessary.

ARTICLE VII.
(Government)

Section 1. The government of this association shall be in the duly authorized hands of its elected officers, and all members in good standing.

Section 2. The officers of this association shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer who shall be members in good standing of the association. The president and treasurer will be elected to a two-year term starting at the 2008 winter meeting and must be voted on by all members present. Election will be held on even numbered years.

The vice president and secretary will be elected on odd number years starting in 2009 and must be voted on by all present members during winter meeting for a two year term.

If an officer cannot complete his/her term, the President will appoint a replacement to fill the vacancy until the next scheduled general meeting, at which time a special election will be held to fill the vacancy to complete the term. If this special election vacates a second office, then a special election will be held during the same meeting to fill the second vacancy to complete the term. All offices will be filled before the general meeting can be adjourned."

Section 3. Any of the duly elected officers may also represent their respective districts as the District Umpire.

Section 4. No officer or District Umpire of this association shall receive any compensation for his services except:

- a. The membership may authorize whatever expenses it may deem advisable in carrying out the business of this association.
- b. The membership may authorize the officers of this association to approve necessary expenses for the association between annual meetings.
- c. The Secretary will receive an annual fee set by the association.

Section 5. The business of this association shall be conducted by a majority vote of those duly qualified members present at a regular meeting unless otherwise provided for in this Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE VIII.
(Duties of Officers)

- Section 1. The president of this association shall act as chairman of all association annual meetings and duly authorized meetings of the District Umpires. The president shall set the time and date of the annual meeting within the limits prescribed elsewhere in the Constitution. The president shall appoint such committees, both standing and temporary, as he/she deems necessary to properly conduct the affairs of this association.
- Section 2. The vice president shall attend all association meetings and shall assume all duties of the president whenever the president is absent or unable to carry out presidential duties.
- Section 3. The secretary shall attend all meetings of the association and meetings of the District Umpires. The secretary shall keep the minutes of all meeting in good order and form.
- Section 4. The treasurer shall attend all meetings of the association and meetings of the District Umpires. The treasurer shall keep the financial records of the association and prepare an annual financial report for the annual meeting of the association.

ARTICLE IX.
(Duties of the District Umpires)

- Section 1. The District Umpires shall be appointed by the SDUA President. The District Umpires shall be appointed to alternating three-year terms. The District Umpires shall have the only authority to act for the association in their respective district on all affairs pertaining to decisions arising in their district as it relates to amateur baseball. The District Umpire's geographical jurisdiction shall be determined by the District Umpires and Officers of this association. The District Umpire shall be expected to act prudently and wisely in conducting the affairs of the association. The District Umpire shall have the power to make all necessary decisions in the best interest of the association so long as they are not in conflict with this Constitution and By-laws or previous decisions made by the membership at large. The District Umpire shall make certain the proper steps are taken to ensure the expeditious resolution of all problems. Three men appointed by the president to serve alternating three-year terms shall make up the arbitration board. The arbitration board is the last resort for solving a dispute.

ARTICLE X.
(Duties of Members)

Each member has rights, duties and responsibilities; having voluntarily joined this association is obligated to conduct themselves in a manner which will bring credit upon themselves and the association.

- Section 1. Registered Members may attend the annual meeting of the association and are required to pay their dues in accordance with these by-laws. Certified Members are required to be Registered Members and attend an annual District Umpire's clinic each year.
- Section 2. Members shall pay annual dues before April 15th of each year.
- Section 3. Members shall dress like an umpire as prescribed in Section 4b.1. Umpire shall wear their South Dakota Amateur Baseball patch on the left shoulder 3 inches below the shoulder stitch line. Initial patch is provided at no charge. Extra patches are available at a nominal fee.
- Section 4. Members shall receive one rule book free and shall review the rules of baseball periodically in order to know the rules more thoroughly.
- Section 5. Members shall not criticize their fellow umpire in public. What needs to be said should be said in private or in closed umpires' sessions.
- Section 6. Members shall conduct themselves in a manner which always reflects a positive image on the South Dakota Baseball Umpires Association and baseball in general.

ARTICLE XI.
(Meeting Procedures)

- Section 1. The meetings of this association shall be conducted in accordance with procedures as outlined in Roberts Rule of Order.
